WHEN YOU ENCOUNTER A MONKEY....

1. Avoid carrying food in the open or walking around eating.
2. Avoid carrying water bottles visibly. Please conceal water/beverage bottles in a backpack.
3. Avoid disposing food in the uncovered bins in the wing.
4. Also avoid dumping leftovers alongside the roads.
5. Avoid leaving zipped up and unlocked bags unattended as monkeys usually rummage through them for food and discard all other items.
6. Make sure to latch the doors and the windows from within when the rooms are occupied.
7. Make sure to lock (not just latch) the doors when leaving the rooms.
8. Avoid hanging clothes outside during evening (twilight) and early morning hours.
9. Avoid stepping close to the monkeys and also smiling at them as monkeys perceive bared teeth as aggression.
10. Avoid feeding the monkeys.
11. Avoid making prolonged (preferably any) eye contact with monkeys.
12. If faced with displays of aggression - blinking, bared teeth and growls - avoid eye contact and walk away casually.
13. If attacked when carrying food or a drink give the monkeys the article in a non-threatening way (toss it away).
14. If faced with aggression despite not possessing any food show the monkeys open palms and back away deliberately.
15. Do not scream, wave (or raise) your arms or run away.
